

OLYMPICS IN SYDNEY

Why Sydney is the best place to celebrate the Olympics?

Sydney is the best city to hold the next Olympics because it has a stadium with the capacity to hold its games and it has a capacity of 83,500 people. The name of the stadium is "Stadium Australia".

Sydney also has rivers and sea for sports that are played in water.

Some of the places that celebrate the Olympic Games are:

Olympic Pool North Sydney, Sydney International Aquatic and Athletic Centres, Leichhardt Park Aquatic Centre, King George V Sport & Recreation Centre and Golf in the City.

Hotels where they can stay

YHA Sydney Harbour, Sheraton Grand Sydney Hyde Park, Hilton Sydney, Meriton Suites North Sydney

It's never too late to start

Why is Sydney a good place to visit?

Sydney is a beautiful place to visit. It also has a high quality of life, good service, good weather, a good economic level, many parks and green areas to visit (Hyde Park, The Domain and The Royal Botanic gardens).

Other curiosities:

The Stadium Australia has capacity to do some Olympics too, since the Olympics were celebrated in Sydney between the 15th of September and the 1st of October on 2000. Collaborated 10.651 athletes of 199 countries, that competed in 28 sports and 300 specialities. The country that won most medals was USA with 93 medals in total, in second place Russia with 89 and in the third place China with 58 medals.

Tube Map

