

OLYMPIC BID: SEVILLE

INFORMATION

Seville is a city in Spain, with a population of 688.711 as of 2018, with a surface of 141,4 km². The city used to be owned by muslims in 1248, but it was later taken back by the christians

WHY IT SHOULD BE CELEBRATED THERE

Because there is approximately 240 hotels to shelter in, it's very pretty as a tourist city, also because people are friendly(mostly), also because of the typical food of seville, like Cazón aliñado or Cocido sevillano. It also has lots of space to celebrate the olympic games.

ADDITIONAL THINGS TO NOTE ABOUT SEVILLE

There are many places to visit, such as the Lope de Vega theater, Rocío Jurado Municipal Auditorium and others. Some traditional music from Seville is flamenco, andalusian rock and there's a fair share of Opera and literature culture.

OLYMPIC BID: SEVILLE

AVAILABLE FACILITIES

A Stadium like the Cartuja Stadium would do perfectly fine for the olympic games. It's the fifth biggest stadium in Spain and the second biggest of Andalusia.

Capable of having 57 619 seats for spectators and a size of 105 x 68.

It can even hold big musical events.

SOME OTHER PLACES TO NOTE

Seville has places which fulfill some other needs like a lot of airports, about 38 train stations and a bus station, all for transport, a hospital to attend any medical needs, many restaurants and cafeterias to stop at...

SOME MORE FACTS ABOUT SEVILLE

To wrap this up, here are some interesting facts and curiosities about Seville:

- It's known as the "city of orange trees"
- It had the most important port without a sea.
- It has the biggest gothic cathedral of all the world
- Legends say Seville was founded by Hercules

